Ovo je film o jednoj misiji koju je izveo Tomo Križnar, aktivist za ljudska prava i posebni izaslanik bivšeg slovenskog predsjednika Janeza Drnovška u Darfuru. Ovaj dokumentarac priča i pokazuje uz snažnu dokumentaciju da rat u Darfuru nije samo rat ljudi u Darfuru protiv beznačajnosti Sudana i protiv arapske i kineske pohlepe za naftom i drugim prirodnim bogatstvima, već iznad svega – zbog klimatskih promjena – rat za vodu. Nije to Sveti rat, to je rat za čašu vode.

Film about a mission, that Tomo Kriznar, a human rights activist and former Slovenian president Janez Drnovsek's special emissary in Darfur, made. This documentary tells and shows with strong argumentation, that war in Darfur is not merely a war of people in Darfur against insignificance of Sudan and against Arabic and Chinese greed for petroleum and natural resources, but it is above all – due to climatic changes – war for water. It is not a Holy war, it is the war for a cup of water.
