Dva sata udaljen od obale Miami Beacha leži Haiti, skutren pored Dominikanske Republike, zaboravljen od ostatka svijeta. Zemlja je to siromaštva, očaja i nasilja. Ali za većinu ljudi, koji nikada nisu nogom kročili na Haiti, pakao je jedina riječ koja uistinu može dočarati tamošnji način života. Tamo se odvija film 'Duhovi Cité Soleila'. Stvarnost života na današnjem Haitiju odvija se pred našim očima dok intimno upoznajemo dva brata i njihove priče. To su 2Pac i Bily, haićanski vođe bande koji nastoje donijeti ispravne odluke u svijetu u kojem odlučivanje uopće nije moguće. Film daje neograničeni uvid u međusobnu ljubav i mržnju dvojice braće, njihov ljubavni trokut s Lele, francuskom humanitarkom i njihov neugodni pakt s predsjednikom Aristideom koji se očajnički bori za ostanak na vlasti u 2004.

Two hours distant from Miami Beach coast is Haiti, huddled up in front of the Dominican Republic, forgotten by the rest of the world. It is a country of poverty, despair and violence. But for the most of people who have never stepped on Haiti, the hell is the only word which can truly present that way of living. The film "The Ghosts of Cité Soleila" action takes place there. The reality of life on the nowadays Haiti unrolls in front of our eyes while we get intimately introduced to two brothers and their stories. They are 2Pac and Bily, the Haiti gang leaders who are trying to come to correct decisions in the world in which making decisions is not possible at all. The film is an insight into the mutual love and hatred of the two brothers, their love triangle with Lele, a French humanitarian, and their unpleasant pact with President Aristide who is desperately striving to stay in power in 2004.
