"Ratni reporter" prati zbivanja tijekom agresije na Hrvatsku 1991. godine koja je promjenila život svim njenim građanima. Film nije istraživanje povijesnih istina, već autorovih osobnih istina. Koristeći snimke koje je načinio za vrijeme Domovinskog rata kao snimatelj Hrvatske televizije, autor iz prvog lica priča posve osobnu priču. Rat se događa na mjestima gdje je odrastao i sanjao neke druge snove, ali stvarnost – ne samo ratna – ponešto je drukčija. Posve se razotkrivajući, autor na primjeru svog života nudi slojevitu i obuhvatnu paradigmu rata na način na koji je on vidi.

"The War Reporter" follows the events during the aggression on Croatia in 1991 that changed the lives of all the citizens. The film is not investigating the historical truths but rather the author's personal truths. Using the footage shot during the homeland war as the reporter of Croatian TV, the author tells us in first person a completely personal story. The war is going on at the places where he was growing up and dreaming some other dreams, but the reality – not only the war one – is a bit different. Exposing himself completely, on the example of his own life, the author is offering a complex and encompassing paradigm of war in the way he sees it.
