Dokumentarac govori o ljudima koji vade pijesak s morskog dna te ga prebacuju na velike brodove kako bi ga se dovezlo do obale, te kako bi se koristio u građevinskoj industriji. Film portretira ljude za vrijeme vađenja pijeska, te prikazuje jedan težački posao na Jadranu.

The film talks about people who take out the sand from the seabed and transfer it to large ships to get sand to the shore and use it in the construction industry. The film portrays people during the sand removal and depicts another of the menial jobs on the Adriatic.
