Kateter 2. dio – priča se nastavlja

Široki Brijeg iz godine u godinu polako dobiva još jednu kulturnu predstavu koja ima svoju draž, svoju publiku, koja napokon dobiva i svoju prepoznatljivost i identitet. U njoj se pronalaze i oni koji uporno izbjegavaju ozbiljne, namrštene, ispolitizirane i šablonizirane pripredbe u sličnom dvoranskom kino okruženju. Riječ je o novoj audio vizualnoj generaciji ljudi, civilizaciji sitoj pedagoških pridika i ukalupljenih vrijednosti postavljenih da vječno ograničavaju što je ispravno, a što ne.

Koncept Dana filma prerastao je i nadraštao reviju i već smo prošle godine dobili festival, a ove godine imamo po prvi put isprofilirani, i vizualno, i tehnički, i organizacijski, mediteranski festival kratkometražnog dokumentarnog filma. U ovih nekoliko rujanskih dana Široki je dobio, a nadam se da će još godinama dobivati, izvrstan izbor dokumentaraca uz koje će se vezivati ljubavne, sentimentalne, komične, putopisne, znanstvene, možda i propagandne, i neke naivne priče. S ovim konceptualnim zaokretom festival će zasigurno imati dodatnu prepoznatljivost i vlastitu snagu, vlastiti izričaj neovisan o izvanjskim hibridnim utjecajima.

Međutim, ovaj prijelaz s revijalnog na festivalski karakter dokumentarnog filma mediteranskog područja i nadalje ne znači programsko sužavanje i izbacivanje svih onih dobrih stvari iz prethodnih godina. Naprotiv, držim da se ovime dobiva nova pročišćenost i estetska selektivnost kojoj će Dani filma konvergirati i u budućnosti. Već ove godine vidjet ćemo puno širi raspon filmskih, kulturoloških, a samim tim i zemljopisnih utjecaja.

Bilo je bitno da su već na startu filmskih revija, odnosno kasnije festivala, ostavljeni po strani svi kompleksi manje vrijednosti, kompleksi male sredine. Bez obzira na brojne kilometarske probleme s kojima se festival susreće, pa i na pokoje mladenačko neznanje i umišljenu kritičnost prema nečemu što se dovoljno ne poznaje, riznica entuzijazma na Danima filma neiscrpna je. Kao vrijedan zalog iz prošlosti imamo argument da su Dani filma uвijek plijenili, koliko sadržajem, toliko i posebnim duhom i atmosferom koja se stvorila oko njih. Ova topla poetika koja se rasprostire kroz Dane filma i nije toliko zasluga organiziranosti i neke planirane strategije za dobivanje opuštenog ozračja, nego je više plod prirodnog slaganja festivalskih zrnaca u ove četiri godine.

Novi zalogaj kojeg su Dani filma prisvojili u ovom petom, jubilarnom izdanju bremenit je i zahtjevan. Također, ne treba posebno isticati kakav je to poticaj za festival, za malu sredinu u kojoj se samo u startu treba boriti za što širu sadržajnu kulturnu cjelinu, najprije u onom pukom matematičkom, brojčanom, kvantitativnom smislu. Ali morao bi biti univerzalan cilj, pa tako i ovog festivala, izdvojiti kvalitativnu jezgru u smislu profiliranog usmjerenja, estetskog, tematskog... odnosno isturiti najveće vrijednosti, jer ih nema puno. Ili kratko: biti ambiciozan. Upravo su nedostatak zdravih ambicija i utrka za profitom i materijalnim postignućima, za komercijalnošću svih sfera, urodili kvazikulturizacijom društva.

Mediteranski festival dokumentarnog filma u Širokom Brijegu naprosto mora imati goleme ambicioznost i entuzijazam, istovremeno očuvati svoju stilsku izvornost, ali i znati svoje mjesto u "magli svijetlih tragova".

Kateter Part Two-The Story Continues

As the years go by, Široki Brijeg is slowly attaining yet another cultural manifestation which has its own charm, public, and which is finally receiving its own characteristic and identity. Even those who adamantly avoid serious, stern and politicized manifestations in a similar surrounding can be found here. We are talking about a new audio visual generation of people, a civilization that is fed up with pedagogical speeches and rigid values set to eternally limit what is right, and what they consider not to be.

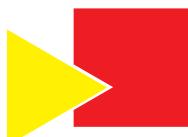

The concept of Dani Filma has grown beyond being just a review, and therefore last year became a festival, and this year we have been given our first visual, technical and organizational, Mediterranean festival of short documentary film. During these few September days Široki Brijeg has received, and hopefully throughout the years continue to receive, an outstanding selection of documentaries in which we will be given sentimental, comic, scientific, adventurous, perhaps propagandic, some nadve, and love stories. With these conceptual turnarounds the festival will definitely gain an additional characteristic and its own explicit strength, which is independent from any external hybrid influence.

However, this merge from a review to a festival of documentary film from the Mediterranean region does not necessarily indicate that the programs will be shortened nor that any of the good old things from the previous years will be thrown out. In contrast, I believe that with this change we will gain a new purity and esthetic selectivity which will converge Dani Filma into the future. Even this year we will witness a larger range of cinematic, cultural, and geographical influences. It was important that at the start of the film review, and later festival, all complexes of inferiority and of being a small town be put aside. Despite the many problems of distance which the festival is faced with, as well as the odd youthful ignorance and predisposed criticism towards something that is not fully understood or known, the treasure of enthusiasm at the Dani Filma is never worn out. Like a pledge from the past we possess the argument that the Dani Filma has always thrived, not only due to its content, but also as a result of the unique spirit and atmosphere which has come to surround it. This warm poetic and relaxing atmosphere that has spread through the Dani Filma is not so much the result of organization or some sort of planned strategy as it is the product of natural compatibility of the festival throughout its four years.

The new morsel which Dani Filma has appropriated in this, its fifth and jubilee production, is noble and demanding. Also, it's not necessary to highlight what an encouragement this is to the festival, as well as the small place in which at the onset, has to fight for a wider cultural unity, first in the mathematical sense of quantity and numbers. But there has to be a universal goal. Thus, in this festival one must separate the qualitative pith in the sense of prolific steering, esthetic, thematic... in other words, thrust the largest values, for there aren't a lot of them. In short: be ambitious. In fact, it's the lack of ambition and the race for profit an material wealth, in the commercialisation of all spheres, that has lead to a quasi-cultural society.

The Mediterranean festival of documentary film in Široki Brijeg must posses a great ambition and enthusiasm, while at the same time, it must retain its stylistic source and know its place in the "fog of lighted paths".

Dani filma
Mediteranski festival dokumentarnog filma

Dokumentarni film je probio sve barijere i ušao u kino. Ravnopravno se bori s igranim ostvarenjima za što veći broj gledatelja i što veću medijsku pažnju. Dokumentarni je film postao trend. Dokumentarni film se trenutno nosi. Angažiranost, sustavno hodanje rukom pod ruku s nagomilanim problemima turobne svakodnevnice, udara u središte pozornosti i lagano postaje medijski brat igranom vladaru mračnih dvorana. Dokumentarni film je hit na svim važnijim svjetskim filmskim smotrama. Dokumentarni film pred nosom uzima igranom svjetske nagrade i priznanja kao da je običnom gledatelju na vrh glave igrano filmske fikcije koja sve teže prati stvarnost oko nas. Uvijek treba nanovo ponavljati opću tezu mnogih teoretičara i filmskih značala o vrijednosti dokumentarnog filma gledanu, međutim, kroz prizmu sveprisutnih igranih elemenata u njima samima, te isto tako dokumentarne elemente autentičnosti i kreativne virtuoznosti u igranofilmskim ostvarenjima.

Sve su me ove misli kao selektora međunarodnog festivala dokumentarnog filma u Širokom Brijegu potaknule da se u izboru vodim postulatima medijskog perfekcionizma, dosljednosti, inovativnosti i autorskog stava lako dokazivog kroz iscrpnu primjenu filmskih avantura. Izabrao sam devet filmova u konkurenциju za nagradu, želeći gledateljima, kao i žiriju, dati na uvid jedan ozbiljan i dovoljno širok raspon kako tematskih tako i formalnih dostignuća međunarodnih autorskih osobnosti.

Vidjet ćemo tako stanovnike malog grčkog živopisnog gradića kako u žaru slobode i veselja pale vatre slaveći davne običaje svojih predaka. Posjetit ćemo i velikog režisera Theodora Angelopoulosa, zaviriti na set njegova filma te nasluti poetski sklad u groznični snimanju fima. Mistični starac u crnogorskom kamenjaru, u minimalističkim potezima lopate i kamere kao substrata, slavi usporeni život, dok je dječak u svojim snovima čvrsto zagrio stvarnost mora, otoka, vođen strahom, ljepotom i prolaznošću dosegnu nebesku liniju posljednje zrake sunca. Španjolski učitelj na vratima svoje škole, svog doma, u dugom igranofilmskom kadru autentične rekonstrukcije, sjajno vodi igru povjerenja i odanosti svojim učenicima. Spustit ćemo se duboko u slavonski bunar od gline i opeke, kako bi u meditativnom ritualu začuđeni promatrali čovjeka i njegove ruke umrežene u projektu stvaranja. Plovit ćemo s ribarima u mračnoj pustoši svjetla, loveći goleme hobotnice i boreći se protiv aliena da bi zaslужeno osvojili nirvanu mora i beskrajnog života u njemu. Plesat ćemo ulicama Vodnjana, gradića u Istri, očijkati s bogatstvima likova, spajat se s rijekom multietičnog plamena, te zavoljeti boju u očima filmskih junaka. Proživjet ćemo i nezacilijene sarajevske ratne rane, prateći hod po mukama jedne sarajevske realnosti, jednog sarajevskog psa i ljudi kojima je kapa spona prošlosti ostao i postao sve. Čeka nas monumentalni ispad snopova svjetlosti koji će s platna kino dvorane donositi nove dokumentarne blagdane širokobriješkoj publici na međunarodnom festivalu dokumentarnog filma.

competing equally with motion pictures for more viewers and for more media coverage. Documentary films have become a "trend". Commitment, walking alongside the mountainous problems of what one might call daily life, is what hits the center of attention and slowly the documentary film becomes the media sibling of the ruling motion picture. Documentary films are a hit at all the important global film festivals. Documentary films grab international awards and recognition away from motion pictures as though every viewer is tired of motion picture fixation, which is finding it difficult to follow the reality around us. It is necessary to consistently review the common thesis of a number of theoreticians and film experts about the value of documentary film seen through, however, the prism of the ever-present motion element within themselves, as well as the documentary elements of authenticity and creative virtuoso in motion picture realizations.

As the selector for the Mediterranean documentary film festival in Široki Brijeg all of these thoughts induced me to conduct the selection with the postulates of media perfectionism, consequences, innovation and the author's position which can easily be seen through the complete application of film-adventure. I have selected nine films for the competition wanting to give the viewers, as well as the judges, a serious and wide enough span of the thematic as well as the formal achievements of international film personalities.

Thus we will see how the citizens of a small Greek picturesque town in a fervour of freedom and joy burn fires celebrating the ancient customs of their ancestors. We will also visit the great producer, Theodore Angelopoulos, peer into the set of his film, as well as get a presentiment of the poetic harmony in the midst of filming fever. A mystical elderly man on a cobble path in Montenegro, with the stroke of a shovel and a camera celebrates the easy life, while a boy in his dreams clinging to the reality of the sea, islands, lead by fear, beauty and transience reaches the celestial line of the final rays of sun. A Spanish teacher at the doors of his school, his home, marvelously leads a game of trust and loyalty with his students. We will be lowered into a deep Slavonian clay and brick well in order to observe a man who, in a meditative ritual, is in the midst of creating. We will sail with fishermen in darkness, desolation, catching huge octopus and fighting against aliens in order to rightfully conquer the nirvana of the sea and the eternity of life within it. We will dance in the streets of Vodjana, a town in Istria, flirt with rich characters, join the river of multiethnic flames, and come to like the colour of the heroes' eyes. We will live through the unhealed war wounds of Sarajevo, following the steps of the hardships of one of Sarajevo's realities, a dog in Sarajevo and the people to whom, as an arch to the past, has remained and become their everything.

Awaiting us is a monumental outburst of lighting sheaf which will, from the movie theatre's screen, bring new documentary festivities to Široki Brijeg's public at the Mediterranean festival of documentary film.

► Prva i posljednji... The First And The Last...

Malesija... Crna Gora.

Još uvijek su otvorena vrata stare kame-ne kuće Božjeg čovjeka, 86-ogodišnjeg Kolj Mark Djeke, jednog od malisor-skih prvaka, vojvode brojnog bratstva Ljulđuraja koje živi u ovom kraju, a ponajviše u Americi, čija je riječ "PRVA I POSLJEDNJA". Poštuje se i provodi bespogovorno...

Malesija... Montenegro.

The door is still open on the old stone house of "the God's man" - eighty – four year old Kolj Marc, one of the malisor nobles, the duke of the numerous Ljuljuraj local clan, more of them living in the U.S.A. His word is "THE FIRST AND THE LAST". And he is obeyed unquestioningly.

Obitelj u noćnom odlasku barkom. Lov ostima. Iz tih situacija uočljiva je dimenzija istinske realnosti filma; djed, otac, sin i kći su svijet za sebe, njihova svakodnevna surova stvarnost u borbi za goli život. Glavni događaj ovog filma, riba- hobotnica, dramaturški je element koji u intervalima izdvaja trenutke u filmu, kontrastirajući meditativni (dalmatinski) ugodaj i surovost lova.

A family on an outing at night in a boat. Harpoon hunting. From these situations comes a dimension of true film reality: grandfather, father, son and daughter are a world of their own, their daily raw reality in their fight for bare existence. The main event in this film, the fish/octopus, is the dramatic element which splits the moments of the film into intervals, contrasting the meditative (Dalmatian) pleasure and the raw hunt.

Čovjek, žena, pas: svi troje mirno žive u Sarajevu. Međutim, jedan emotivan događaj se neizbjegljivo približava. Pas Ronny je star i ima ozbiljne poteškoće s hodanjem. Stoga ga Alma i Ilija odlučuju uspavati. Ali, Ronny je posljednja živa spomena na njihovog sina Tonyja koji je poginuo u bici za Sarajevo 4. srpnja 1993. Ronny je bio njegov pas, a kad Ronnya ne više bude, ostat će samo medalje, fotografije i spomene na njihovog sina. Čini se da je Ronny svjestan svoje sudbine, baš kao što je znao i da je Tonyjeva smrt bila neizbjegljiva. Jer, nije se htio oprostiti od njega kad se vratio na ratište.

A man, a woman, a dog; the three of them live peacefully in Sarajevo. However, an emotional event inevitably draws near. Ronny, the dog, is old and has serious walking problems. Therefore, Alma and Ilija decide to have the dog put down. But Ronny is the last living memory of their son Tony, who fell in the battle of Sarajevo on July 4, 1993. Originally, it was his dog and when Ronny left, only medals, photographs and memories of their son remained. Ronny seems to be aware of his fate, just as he seemed to know Tony's death was imminent when he refused to say goodbye to his owner when he returned to that fateful battle.

Poetski dokumentarac o dječaku s otoka Mljet...

The Poetic Documentary of a Boy from the Island of Mljet...

Bunarman / Wellman

Protagonist dokumentarnog filma "Bunarman", Antun Gabajček - Nuno, među posljednjim je praktičarima jednog izumirućeg zanata. On, naime, po narudžbi kopat bunare, ali ne buši (ne vrta) zemlju strojevima, već koristi oruđe isključivo na mišićni pogon. Takav način obavljanja posla nije nikakav tehnofobični hir, niti tvrdoglavno tradicijsko ustrajavanje, već posve razložna i strojevima, još uvijek, nenadomjestiva tehnologija posla.

The protagonist in the film "Bunarman", Antun Gabajček-Nuno, is one of the last practitioners of a dying trade. He, on request, digs wells, but he doesn't drill the land with machines, rather he uses tools that are fuelled only by muscle power. This way of working isn't technophobia, nor a stubborn traditional way of working, rather it's a rationale in which machines are still not used as a substitute to man-power.

La Strada

Protegnuta na više od tisuću metara i dvjesto kućnih brojeva, glavna ulica istarskoga grada Vodnjan stoljećima je izlog obrta i trgovine, pozornica procesija i karnevala, stjecište raznih jezika, običaja i kultura. Film prikazuje atmosferu "la strade" u raznim razdobljima dana, zaviruje iza njezinih zidova i portretira ljudе koje su valovi povijesti, migracije i svakodnevni život doveli u arteriju mediteranskoga grada.

Over a thousand meters long, and with 200 houses along it, the main street of the Istrian town of Vodnjan has been a showroom of crafts and trades for centuries, a stage for processions and carnivals, and a meeting point of various languages, traditions and cultures... The film depicts the atmosphere of 'la strada' at different times of the day, peeks behind its walls and portrays the people brought in by the waves of history, migration and everyday life to this artery of a Mediterranean town.

Ovaj se učitelj doista brine. Svako jutro Basilio dočekuje svoje učenike na vratima škole. No, njih se baš i ne trudi mnogo doći, a neki su odvraćeni na samome putu prema školi. Kroz razgovore između učitelja i njegovih učenika upoznajemo se s teškom realnošću, s kojom se suočava njihov kvart. Ovo je snažan i emotivan prikaz jednog čovjeka koji pokušava ujediniti zajednicu.

This teacher really cares. Every morning, Basilio welcomes his students at the door of the school. Many don't even attempt to come; others get distracted along the way. Through conversation between the teacher and the kids, we become familiar with the difficult reality facing the neighborhood. This is a powerful and sensitive portrayal of a man trying to hold a community together.

Vatra i led su dva elementa prirode koji se erotično kombiniraju. Ova erotična veza utječe na svakodnevni život u selu Florina i na mentalitet njezinih građana. Promjena sezone u Florini ne zapažaju se samo na drveću, nego i na njezinim stanovnicima. Stari običaji od prije 2500 godina još se uvijek primjenjuju u regiji. U noći zimskog solsticija, građani pale velike vatre u svakome kvartu. Ovaj film proučava jedan od ovih kvartova, Trg Junaka. Objasnjava pripremu vatre i predstavlja sve junake tog trga.

Fire and cold are two elements of nature that combine erotically. This erotic relation influences the everyday life of the town of Florina and the mentality of its citizens. The change of seasons in Florina is not only perceived by its trees, but also by its people.

An ancient custom that goes back 2500 years, is still practiced in the region. During the nights of the winter solstice, large fires are lit in every neighborhood. The film studies one of these neighborhoods, the Heroes Square. It describes the preparations for the fire and also presents all the heroes of the square.

Trajanje / duration: 122 min.

Michael Moore otkriva pozadinu političke karijere američkog predsjednika Busha, promjena u Americi nakon 11. rujna i pravih uzroka i posljedica iračkog rata. Dok je u prvom dijelu filma rekапitulirao sve Bushove propuste, Moore je u drugom prikazao nekoliko tužnih i znakovitih sudbina malih ljudi.

Michael Moore exposes the background of the political career of the American president Bush, the changes in America after September 11, and the real causes and consequences of the war in Iraq. In the first part he recapitulates all of Bush's oversights, and in the second he shows a couple of gloomy, significant destinies of the little people.

Tu / Here

Film "Tu" radnjom iz suvremenog života, što sugerira i naslov, metodom koja podsjeća na isprepletene kriške života, stvara panoramski prikaz sredine o kojoj govorи. Desetak likova prati se izdvojeno, na prvi pogled čak i nasumično, da bi se ponovo pojavili, ponekad i susreli. Likovi tvore galeriju marginalaca (umirovljenik, narkomanka, bivši ratnici...), ljudi koji su uglavnom bez perspektive, pa je i sveukupna slika ovdašnje stvarnosti poprilično tmurna.

The film "Here", with its storyline emerging from contemporary life, suggested by the title itself, utilizes a method that reminds one of interlaced slices of life and renders a panoramic view of the milieu it talks about. About a dozen characters are followed separately, even randomly at first glance, just to reappear again and even meet with others on occasion. The characters shape a gallery of marginal people (a pensioner, a junkie, ex warriors ...), people more or less with no future, so the overall picture of the local reality is rather gloomy.

Nikada se nije plesalo kao tih godinu ili dvije, početkom osamdesetih. Zapravo, vrijeme nije bilo veselo: zemljom je tresla ekonomski kriza, umro je svemoćni predsjednik Tito, stižu vijesti da je u Poljskoj uvedeno izvanredno stanje... a generacije mlađih živjele su u skladu s tada popularnom pjesmom "Zamisl život u ritmu muzike za ples". Ja sam doista sve to video, svuda bio i sve doživio. I sve se dogodilo upravo kada mi je najviše trebalo, baš u trenutku kada sam izletio iz gniazda i tražio svoj svijet. Pa smo čak i mi, koji smo od najmanjih nogu baštinali bolne komplekse što živimo u siromašnoj zemlji na kraju svijeta, odjednom osjetili da je upravo ovo mjesto gdje treba živjeti.

Never has there been as much dancing as in the beginning year or two of the 1980's. In fact, the times were not happy ones: the country was shaken by an economic crisis, the powerful president Tito died, there was the news that Poland was put under police curfew... but the young generation still lived in sync with the then popular song 'Think of life in the rhythm of dance music'. I certainly witnessed all of that, travelled everywhere and lived through it all. And this all happened at exactly the right moment, precisely when I flew from the nest and was seeking my own world. Thus, even we, who from birth had harboured a painful complex of living in a poor country at the other end of the world, suddenly felt that this was precisely the place where everyone should live.

Moja prijateljica Bilja ranjena je 1992. u Sarajevu. Izgubila je ruku. Poznati francuski fotograf slikao ju je dok je ona krvarišta i očajnički tražila pomoć. Nije joj pomoagao, slikao je i postao popularan zbog te slike. Ali, što se dogodilo s Biljom?

My friend Bilja was wounded in 1992 in Sarajevo. She lost her arm. A well-known French photographer took a picture of her while she was bleeding a desperately seeking help. He didn't help her, he photographed her and became famous due to those pictures. But what happened to Bilja?

Svjedok vremena je film o čovjeku koji fotografije pravi duže od 50 godina. Na više od 150.000 negativa zabilježio je Mostar u svim njegovim fazama razvoja, destrukcije i ponovne izgradnje. Svorio je svojevrsnu instituciju, ali još ne zna hoće li netko uvidjeti njezinu vrijednost i sačuvati to kulturno blago. Budući da nikada nije radio iz materijalnih pobuda veli da će raditi sve dok ga noge budu držale. A one su mu, s obzirom da svoj posao obavlja pješice, zasad najvjerniji saveznik.

Svjedok vremena (Witness to Time) is a movie about a man, who through photographs, records Mostar in all of its phases: its development, destruction and subsequent reconstruction. He created a special institution, but still doesn't know if anyone will see its values and protect its cultural treasure. Seeing as he never worked for material gain, he says that he will continue to work as long as his legs allow him to, and seeing as he does his work on foot, they are his best allies.
